

One Life...Many Gifts

Attitudinal Post-Survey for Teachers

School Board: _____

Subject: _____

1. After teaching this curriculum, what do you believe are the benefits for students of learning about organ and tissue donation and transplantation?

---

---

---

---

---

---

2. What did your students find most interesting about this curriculum? (You can mention more than one aspect.)

---

---

---

---

---

---

3. After working with this curriculum, is there anything about teaching organ and tissue donation and transplantation curriculum that concerned you? If so, please outline your concerns briefly.

---

---

---

---

---

---

4. After teaching this curriculum, how willing are you to become an organ and tissue donor yourself and would you encourage others to declare their intentions regarding organ and tissue donation and to discuss their wishes with their family?

No, not at all willing     Probably not willing     Unsure
Quite willing     Very willing

Why or why not?

---

---

---

---

---

5. What section(s) of the curriculum resource did you use with your students?

---

---

---

---

---

6. If you teach this curriculum again, what you would continue, change or stop in the way you delivered this curriculum?

Continue:

---

---

---

Change:

---

---

---

Stop:

---

---

7. What part of this curriculum resource did you find most helpful and engaging?

---

---

---

---

---

8. Would you encourage a colleague to use this curriculum with his/her students?

Yes  No

Why or why not?

---

---

---

---

---

9. What advice would you offer a colleague who was teaching this curriculum for the first time?

---

---

---

---

10. The DVD about organ and tissue donation was a very effective teaching tool.

Strongly Agree                       Somewhat Agree
Somewhat Disagree                       Strongly Disagree

What suggestions do you have for improving the DVD?

---

---

---

---

11. My culture/religion doesn't support organ and tissue donation.

Strongly Agree                       Somewhat Agree
Somewhat Disagree                       Strongly Disagree

12. By signing the donor card that comes with my drivers license, I am automatically registered as an organ and tissue donor.

Strongly Agree                       Somewhat Agree
Somewhat Disagree                       Strongly Disagree

13. I am afraid that organ donation is a 'black market' and is not regulated or controlled in Ontario.

Strongly Agree                       Somewhat Agree
Somewhat Disagree                       Strongly Disagree

14. I think that re-using a healthy organ and tissue from a donor is a positive way to save lives.

Strongly Agree                       Somewhat Agree
Somewhat Disagree                       Strongly Disagree

15. I am afraid that organ and tissue donation will negatively impact my funeral plans.

Strongly Agree                       Somewhat Agree
Somewhat Disagree                       Strongly Disagree

16. I am afraid that doctors and nurses wouldn't try as hard to save me if they knew I had agreed to organ and tissue donation.

Strongly Agree                       Somewhat Agree
Somewhat Disagree                       Strongly Disagree

17. I think that I have an obligation to take care of others through organ and tissue donation.

Strongly Agree                       Somewhat Agree
Somewhat Disagree                       Strongly Disagree

18. I am afraid that by donating my organs and tissue after my death my family will suffer additional pain during their grief.

Strongly Agree                       Somewhat Agree
Somewhat Disagree                       Strongly Disagree